

Ka'ūpulehu Cultural Center

FOUR SEASONS
RESORT
HUALĀLAI

This special place called Ka'upulehu, once believed to be named Ka'ulupulehu (roasted breadfruit) is based on a legend of two sisters, Kolomu'o and Pahinahina, who were visited by Pele while roasting their breadfruit. Stories such as these help define the history of these lands.

The Ka'upulehu Cultural Center programs are designed to be interactive, fun, and educational for the entire family. Please join our mea ho'okipa (host) as they share the Hawaiian culture and teach you to make crafts that you will be able to take home and share. "Talk story" with Uncle Earl and our mea ho'okipa. Make this your first stop during your stay here at Hualalai.
